

The ChangeMakers Collective

Building youth's potential towards:
community and collective leadership.

The ChangeMakers Collective will bring together young changemakers (aged 18-35) from around the world to explore, in community, the issues of the world and their role in finding solutions. Rooted in the ideas of Initiatives of Change, the conference will focus on inner transformation towards outer impact with a strong focus on reflection, dialogue and learning.

Inner work

Inner transformation towards community change

Leadership

Building our practice of community centered leadership through tools exploring purpose in life, diversity, conflict transformation etc

Agency

Activating our purpose, decision making and amplifying voices of the underrepresented

Sustainability

Creating personal and collective practices in changemaking

This conference marks the starting point of this journey that will bring together a diverse group of youth working in various fields in their communities.
